Coronavirus is no match for Planet Earth!!

It might be April 1st, but we’re NOT FOOLIN’ around when we tell you that #ElginEarthMonth starts today and it has gone virtual.

To participate in all of this month’s fun virtual activities, simple go to the Elgin Earth Month Facebook Page, follow us and watch for the variety of daily posts including music, podcasts, community trash collection project, videos, blogs, quizzes, book club, movies and so much more.

Share content with your friends. Participate in virtual discussions.

Your body might be sheltering in place, but your mind doesn’t have to be confined.

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic . . .

we've gone virtual
