

Language Access Resource Center (LARC)

Language Access Resource Center (LARC) provides interpreter and translation services, interpreter training, and consultation for language access solutions, to hospitals, schools, human services, behavioral health providers, law enforcement, government and businesses, so that provide optimal service to clients, patients, students and constituents who do not speak English.

- Face-to-Face Interpretation. We can provide face-to-face on-site interpretation in over 40 languages including American Sign Language. Requests for face-to-face interpreting may be made through several convenient formats, including an online scheduling system.
- Video Remote Interpreting. Our local interpreters can provide consecutive and simultaneous interpretation services for virtual meetings and webinars via various platforms and app.
- Telephonic Interpretation. In conjunction with our telephonic partner we provide telephonic interpretation in over 200 languages. Clients are provided with their own toll-free number to call for immediate access to a telephonic interpreter.
- Translation of documents and subtitles. And video transcribing. Translation is available for most languages, covering a wide variety of subject matter with prompt turnaround.
- Trainings. Rigorous interpreter trainings are offered multiple times a year. Currently we offer online and hybrid trainings, workshops, and continuing education opportunities for trained professional interpreters and staff language liaisons.

During the pandemic, we have helped many clients overcome language barriers using virtual platforms. We would love to share more details about our organization and the services we provide.
