
Energy-Saver Best Practices:
Unplug appliances when not in use
Take quick, colder showers
Turn off the lights in un-occupied rooms
Use smaller appliances when possible
AND MUCH MORE!
Important Notes:
*LIHEAP: Deadline for new applicants is Friday, 8/13/2027. You must apply in-person at a CEDA partner intake site. You will also receive LID.
LID: Those who don't also qualify for LIHEAP can apply online through ComEd.
Home Energy Savings (HES): Services are dependent on household income and your type of housing.
Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP)*
One-time payment
Low Income Discount Program (LID)
Monthly discount of 5-80% depending on housing & income
Free & independent of income or housing type
Income at or below 300% Federal Poverty Level
Income at or below 300% Federal Poverty Level
Reduce personal consumption
Access utility bill assistance
Utility Navigator Tools
Nicor Community Assessment Navigator (CAN)
Online portal with resources for financial and energy-saving needs
ComEd Smart Assistance Manager (SAM)
Online assessment that supports grant applications, monthly payments, and past-due balance forgiveness programs
"I want to lower my utility bill!"
Electricity
Water
Gas
Questions?
Call CEDA: +1 (800) 571- 2332
Email us: coach@climateactionevanston.org
For more information & all links--
Visit: tinyurl.com/LIEEOE
Improve home energy efficiency
Nicor Gas Customers
Income at or below 200% Federal Poverty Level
Home is a building with 1 to 2 units/families
Home is a building with 3 or more units/families
IL Home Weatherization Program (IHWAP)
Free home assessment + up to $24,000 in free energy-saving upgrades
Home Energy Savings (HES)
Free Home Assessment & Free or Discounted energy-saving upgrades
Multi-Family Energy Savings (HES for 3+ family homes)
Landlord or building manager must apply
Nicor Water & Energy Saving Kits
Request free products online